

Can EU policy drive the decarbonisation in the Western Balkans?

EMISSIONS
TRADING
EXTRA
LIFE
ETX

EU-ETS and CBAM impacts in the Western Balkan countries

DATE

Tuesday, December 6th, 2022

TIME

12:45 pm – 02:30 pm

PLACE

European Parliament
Live-streamed

We invite you to watch a panel discussion organised in the European Parliament on December 6th on the impacts that the EU-ETS and the new Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM) will have on the Western Balkan countries, focusing in the power sector, and options to mitigate them.

The panel discussion is hosted by MEP Petros Kokkalis and co-organized by The Green Tank and CEE Bankwatch Network. It is part of the LIFE-ETX Project and aims at bringing together environmental NGOs and mayors from the Western Balkans with EU policy and decision makers, so that the challenges and opportunities associated with the implementation of EU carbon pricing policy can be identified and explored.

The event will be live-streamed – LINK to watch

PANELISTS

- Petros Kokkalis, MEP, The Left
- Yiannis Zachariadis, European Commission
- Ioana Ciuta, Energy Coordinator, CEE Bankwatch Network
- Samir Kamenjaković, Mayor of Zivinice, Bosnia and Herzegovina
- Mirnes Bajtarevic, Mayor of Kakanj, Bosnia and Herzegovina
- Nikos Mantzaris, Senior Policy Analyst & Co-Partner, The Green Tank

Moderator: Sam Van Den Plas, Policy Director, Carbon Market Watch

ORGANIZERS

Bankwatch
Network

HOSTED BY

SUPPORTED BY

European Climate
Foundation

This event is part of a series of meetings organised within the LIFE ETX project to share knowledge and best practices and discuss carbon pricing policy-making processes among a wide group of stakeholders.